

Math & Science Camp 2009: Daily Staff Arrivals at 8am

Training & Parent Orientation – Mon, June 1st-Fri, June 5th, Thursday, June 4th, 6:30pm, Parent Orientation
All 1st and 3rd Wednesdays are Visitors and Fridays are field days. Fingerprinting, CPR Training, Lesson Planning

Week One- Orientation, Introductions, Pre-Assessments, Expectations, Outcomes & Final Projects
Theme: Building Leaders & Building Rapport
Georgia Standards: (3-5 Low Level Questions per week)
June 8th-12th

Week Two – Basic Standards, Reinforcing Discipline Standards, Setting the Math & Science Foundation
Theme: Appreciation, Comprehension & Careers for Math & Science, Media/News Coverage
(All students prepare short demonstrations for a Special Man in their lives, Report out on 22nd)
Georgia Standards: (4-6 Low Level Questions per week)
June 15th- June 19th. Optional Staff Development Afternoon, Thursday June 18th, 5:30pm-6:30pm

Week Three – Exploring into the Field of Math & Science, Know exactly who your students are,
Theme: There are no excuses to success, Blast off!!!
Georgia Standards: (5-7 Low-Mid Level Questions per week)
June 22nd- June 26th: Parent/Teacher Conference Week & Back to School Night

Week Four – Molding, Tailoring, Facilitating the process of projects, No distributions to Success
Theme: Being Outside is the best way, the rubber meets the road!
Georgia Standards: (6-8 Mid Level Questions per week)
June 29th-July 2nd: Thursday is field day

Week Five – Prepping, Practicing, Training for 1st Final Project Presentation Draft of Implementation
Theme: If they don't like the project/presentation framework now, speak up! Media/News Coverage
Georgia Standards: (8-10 Mid-High Level Questions per week)
(All Students prepare short demonstrations tailored around Independence Day, Report out on 6th)
July 6th-July 10th: Mandatory Fun Staff Development Afternoon, Thursday, July 9th, 5:00pm-7:00pm

Week Six - Prepping, Practicing, Training for 2nd Final Project Presentation Draft of Implementation
Theme: Easier Said than Done as Sponsors start to come by
Georgia Standards: (9-11 Mid-High Level Questions per week)
July 13th-July 17th

Week Seven - Prepping, Practicing, Training for 3rd Final Project Presentation Draft of Implementation
Theme: More visitors
Georgia Standards: (10-12 High Level Questions per week)
July 20th-July 24th

Week Eight – Grand Finale, Final Projects, Final Assessments, Demonstrations, Celebration
Theme: We Have Arrived, News/Media Coverage
Georgia Standards: (3-5 Grade and a half Level Questions per week)
July 27th – July 30th (July 30th – Grand Finale Day)